

The graded PowerPoint portion of this assignment is worth 25 points. (Yes, you get a sneaky bonus point! Shh, it's not a math class!)

	4 points	3 points	2 points	1 point
Supports the Presentation	Uses a variety of types of visual evidence to support assertions.	Uses visual evidence to support assertions.	Majority of slides are text only.	No visual evidence included.
Professional	The visual aid has a unified visual style.	Fonts, colors, and presentation of visual evidence are consistent on most slides.	Fonts, colors, and presentation of visual evidence are inconsistent.	Contents of slides are inappropriate for professional use.
References and Citations	Citations and complete reference information for all evidence in the visual in APA format.	Citations included for most evidence in the visual aid. Complete reference information included.	Majority of evidence is missing citation or reference information.	Citation or reference information missing throughout visual aid.
Accessible	Uses fonts, font sizes, and colors that are accessible and appropriate for a general audience.	Uses fonts, font sizes, and colors that hinder usability for some audience members.	Uses fonts, font sizes, and colors that hinder usability for average audience members.	Significant problems with accessibility. Slides not useful for average audience members.
Formatted	All content slides use Assertion-Evidence structure.	One error in Assertion-Evidence structure appears on one content slide.	One error in Assertion-Evidence structure appears on multiple content slides.	Content slides have multiple errors of many kinds.

Note: Evidence with citation and reference information missing is plagiarism.