

The presentation portion of this assignment is worth 100 points. A minor issue (1m) will reduce the grade by 2 points, multiple minor issues (2m+) in the same area by 5 points, and major issues (M) by 10 points.

M	2m+	1m	Objective
			Topic Fit
.	.	.	Topic meets assignment objectives.
.	.	.	Topic is appropriate for the environment.
.	.	.	Topic is compelling and interesting for the target audience.
			Introduction
.	.	.	Attention Getter is present, effective, and placed first.
.	.	.	Relevance effectively connects the topic to the audience.
.	.	.	Credibility effectively shows speaker's expertise to the audience.
.	.	.	Thesis Statement is clearly stated.
.	.	.	Overview effectively previews main points (and only main points).
			Organization
.	.	.	Main Points are clearly and consistently organized.
.	.	.	Transitions are all present and effective.
.	.	.	Directional transitions are used between main points.
			Support
.	.	.	Main points support the thesis statement.
.	.	.	Supporting points are evidence that supports main points.
.	.	.	Oral citations present for all supporting points.
.	.	.	Initial oral citations contain all necessary information.
.	.	.	Evidence for each main point is diverse in type, form, and source.
			Conclusion
.	.	.	(Optional) Summary effectively reviews main points (only).
.	.	.	Thesis is clearly restated.
.	.	.	Clincher is present, effective, and placed last.
			Presentation Aids
.	.	.	Aids are professional and appropriate (topic, audience, environment).
.	.	.	Aids effectively complement the presentation.
.	.	.	Aids are accessible for a general audience.
.	.	.	Content slides have full-sentence assertion headings.
.	.	.	Assertion headings are supported by visual evidence.
.	.	.	Visual evidence is cited visually.
.	.	.	Complete references in APA style are included for visual citations.
			Delivery
.	.	.	Voice is clear, fluent, and engaging (volume, rate, pitch, fillers, etc).
.	.	.	Movement is engaging and appropriate (movement, pacing, swaying, etc.).
.	.	.	Eye contact is distributed evenly and naturally across the audience.
.	.	.	Facial expressions are engaging and appropriate.
.	.	.	Speech notes are used effectively (a checklist, not a script).
			Time Management
.	.	.	Presentation is within 30 seconds of target length.

Notes: Required information for initial citations includes creator, their credibility, publication date, source type, container title, work title, and (for quotations) page number. Presentations which greatly exceed the target length will be stopped. Evidence with both citation and reference information missing is plagiarism.